We will request confirmation of your identity before granting access to your information or making alterations to it.

Cookies:

"Cookies" are pieces of information that are placed on an individual's computer hard drive to enable the individual to communicate and interact with the site more easily and efficiently. We may use cookies to customise your experience on the site. We may also use cookies to record how many times a user has visited our site and what pages the user has accessed. You may, however, disallow receiving cookies at any time through your web browser. It is not our intention to use cookies to retrieve information that is unrelated to our site or your interaction with our site.

Security:

The Company has implemented security policies and put in place encryption controls to seek to ensure that there is no improper use or disclosure, unauthorized modification, unlawful destruction, accidental loss or unauthorized access to your information or our systems.

IP Address:

We may collect your IP (Internet Protocol) address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our site. An IP address is a number that is assigned to your computer when you use the internet. This information does not of itself contain any personally identifiable information but your IP address may be used to help identify you during a particular session and to gather broad demographic data.
